

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Eugene "Bud" Rasmussen began in law enforcement in the city of Beresford, South Dakota, in 1958; and,

WHEREAS, Bud became deputy sheriff for Union County in 1960 and went on to become Union County Sheriff in 1973; and,

WHEREAS, Bud has devoted his life to the betterment of his community, the caring and sharing with family and friends and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Bud is a kind, caring and understanding person who people can turn to in times of need, and is a leader in times of crisis; and,

WHEREAS, Bud was a devoted husband to his deceased wife, Lilian, is a good father to their children, and loving grandfather to his grandchildren; and,

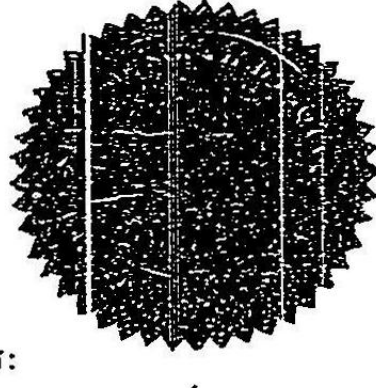

WHEREAS, On February 28, after 32 years in law enforcement in this great state, Sheriff Bud Rasmussen is retiring and will be working as part-time security at Dakota Dunes; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make note of this outstanding South Dakotan:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim February 28, 1990, as in South Dakota, and I join his many friends and co-workers in wishing him good luck in the future.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twentieth Day of February, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR
